Foreword

In this, the 1963 Proctorian, we would like to preserve through pictures the memories, both happy and sad, of our four years at Proctor High School.

We realize that these important years which are now about to close have tried to prepare us educationally and socially for the future.

The Seniors will soon open the door to higher learning and future responsibilities.

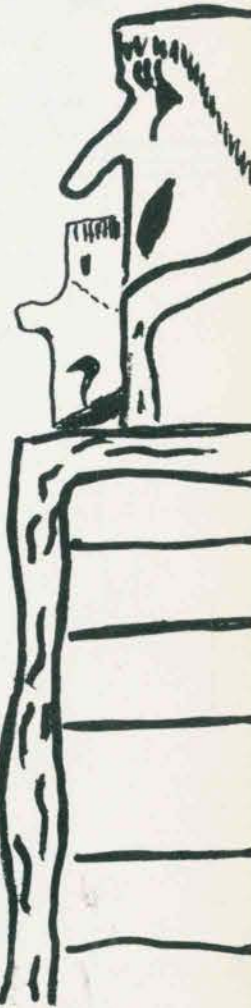

With this in mind, the 1963 Proctorian is presented as a token of our appreciation for the past.

History

Wide and starry eyed--not our Freshman class. Yes, we learned our poem and numbers for the almighty Seniors, but we didn't have a tussle with them at the Freshman Reception. In fact, instead of being a night to remember it was a night we vaguely remember.

Under the direction of Mrs. Mahoney and Mr. Gould, we won second prize in the Junior One-Act Play contest when we presented "If Girls Asked Boys for Dates."

Our four trusty officers were B. Landon, President; S. Smyrski, Vice President; K. Sheehy, Treasurer; and P. Frappier, Secretary.

We gained a fellow student, James Mills.

On September 6, 1961, the Sophomore class--minus four members--J. Anderson, A. Hamilton, W. Champine, and J. Stevenson--gathered in full force on the steps of P.H.S. ready to begin another year and ready to welcome the incoming Frosh class.

In the class election four officers were elected. They were J. Ratti, President; J. Kapitan, Vice President; I. Grochot, Secretary; and L. Sanderson, Treasurer.

This year, we moved up a couple of notches and took first prize in the Junior One-Acts. The play was "Mind Over Mumps" which was directed by Mrs. Geno and Miss Dutelle.

As June rolled around, we were more than happy to say good-bye to school and all it entails. We also carried one happy thought with us as we left: ONLY TWO MORE YEARS TO GO!

The Junior year was fairly prosperous. We took pleasure in welcoming Maria Page and Bette Potter to our class. The class officers were J. Ratti, President; J. Kapitan, Vice President; S. Smyrski, Secretary; and L. Sanderson, Treasurer.

For activities we put on two dances: the Sadie Hawkins and the Junior Prom, "Blue Hawaii." We won first prize in the Junior One-Acts with "Gray Bread" directed by Miss Burke.

At last the big year arrived. Even on the first day, our thoughts were of graduation. Although, lost in a whirl of yearbook, classes, after graduation plans, and activities, we were never too busy to count the remaining days of school. The production of the Senior play, "Girls in White" went off successfully directed by Mrs. M. Burke. Now, we are finished with all of this and our eyes turn to our life to come. These four years have helped to determine what that life will be like and we are thankful for them.

J. Ratti K. Sheehy S. Steele

The Redfield Proctor Chapter of the National Honor Society will celebrate its fifth anniversary this year. Thus we mark a milestone in the recognition of the pursuit of excellence in the traits for which the Society stands: Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service.

It is an enduring truth that superior capability unalloyed by leadership expressed through character and service may be likened to St. Paul's "sounding brass and tinkling cymbal." The Proctor Chapter of the National Honor Society is to be highly commended for its continued adherence to the high standards of admission, especially in the areas of character, leadership and service. Proctor may be justifiably proud of its students who meet and maintain these high standards for membership. The younger students in school would do well to strive for their election to this select group.

For those in the class of 1963 who have attained this high honor, I offer my congratulations, and also urge them to continue to live up to the trust implicit in this recognition. Proctor High is especially proud of its National Honor Scholars and expects intelligent leadership from each as he goes forth in life.

Proctor High's fine soccer team enjoyed another winning season as the "Phantoms" won their sixth straight Marble Valley League Championship.

By completing such a tremendous season, Coach Booth's "Phantoms" placed four players on the Marble Valley League All-Star Team.

Captain Jon Ratti and Helmut Korkisko were placed on the first team for the second consecutive year.

Proctor's hope for the State Championship was ruined as the "Phantoms" dropped a bitterly fought contest to Vermont's State Champion, Hinesburg High, in the State soccer tournament 2-0.
